Daily Guided Excursions:

Historical & Cultural Guided Tour of Iqaluit

Up first, a perfect introduction to this land: tour the Capital of Nunavut's Territory with a welcoming Nunavummiut (resident of Nunavut) as your guide. Engage with your friendly host, discovering insights about daily life in this unique Inuit community. Uncover fascinating local history as you tour the busy streets, from the settlement of Frobisher Bay, to the official formation of Nunavut, to today. This excursion is tailored to your interests, perhaps you'll stop at Unikkaarvik Visitor Centre or Nunatta Sunakkutaangit Museum, or visit boutique shops to peruse wares crafted by Nunavut's many working artists.

Pangnirtung or "Pang" for the locals, is world renown for the quality of its art, while touring this welcoming settlement; spend some time exploring the Uqqurmiut Centre host of the tapestry and print making studio.

Hiking Excursion in Auyuittuq

Majestic towers, carved in bedrock by glaciers, shooting straight for the sun: such scenery is what Auyuittuq National Park has to offer. It is, without a doubt, one of the most awe-inspiring places on Earth. Explore for a day Auyuittuq National Park in the company of your guide. On your way, you will have an opportunity to see impressive rock formations dating back to the last ice age, moraines, boulder fields, sharp peaks and a huge glacier in the backdrop. Memories like these are unlikely to fade away.

Kekerten Island and Pangnirtung

After leaving Auyuittuq Park, an Inuit guide will take you on a boat ride to the remarkable Kekerten Island. There, you can see a remaining of an old whaling station that would have been at its busiest in the 1870s. To this day, the artifacts on Kekerten Island are carefully preserved. This guided tour will take you through a part of history that is kept alive by a few elders in the village. Pangnirtung, a small northern community with a rich history and a booming arts and crafts scene that serves as the gateway to the park for hikers. Remnants of historical whaling activity, Pangnirtung will fascinate you.

Traveling in Nunavut:

Traveling in Nunavut can be one of your life time adventures. Scenery, people and wildlife are only few of a million things giving such a unique taste to the Canadian arctic. But traveling in Nunavut, also mean, traveling following permitting weather, and so, bad weather cancellations are not impossible. Also, "out of our control" situation can happen even with the best preparation. Replacement pieces for aircrafts and specialised workers to fix engines often need to be brought from South and are not always available the next morning.

To enjoy your next experience up North it is important to be ready to face those situations and to be ready to play with your schedule. Following those comments, we highly recommend that everybody traveling to the Arctic take few days off at the end of their trip to accommodate delay, with a smile.
